Discussion

1. Pension Study Subcommittee Update

Chair Korn, Commissioner Sievers and Commissioner Thompson, all members of the pension study special project subcommittee, delivered and presented the draft pension study report for the full commission review. The study, entitled “Los Altos Pension Obligations: Overview, Risks and Alternatives” was presented in detail by all subcommittee members covering both the content and background in the development of the report’s observations, findings and conclusions.

A member of the Public, Andrea Eaton, commented on the report followed by a full night of comments, review points and edit requests by all Commission members. The report was vetted fully and the Commission agreed to schedule one further Special meeting on September 25th as a final review point prior to the reports delivery to City Council.
