PUBLIC COMMENT

BUSINESS

1. Movie Night With Mountain View YAG

Staff presented the idea of partnering with the Mountain View Youth Advisory Group to host a series of teen movie nights as opposed to one movie night on their own. DEMARTINI MOVED to join forces with the City of Mountain View and offer 4 movie nights to local teens, 2 in Los Altos and 2 in Mountain View. THE MOTION WAS SECONDED BY BECK AND PASSED UNANIMOUSLY BY VOICE VOTE.

2. Community Picnic Basketball Tournament

The sub-committee decided to set their first meeting in June to start working on the logistics of the basketball tournament.

3. High School Events Ideas

Since the Commission would no longer be solely responsible for a teen movie night staff asked for new high school event ideas. The Commission suggested several ideas including a teen bowling night, another high school dance, and guest speakers. It was recommended that any new events should be done next fall.

4. Teen Website

Staff asked the Commission what they thought of creating a new teen friendly website. The Commission was excited about the prospect of the idea and suggested that it become a Youth Commission project and added to their goals and objectives for next year.

5. Job Fair Report

Staff reported that the Job Fair was once again very successful and a great way to get the word out about Youth Commission.

6. Letters of Interest

Staff collected letters of interest and submitted them to the City Clerk.

7. Teen Program Report

Staff reported that attendance at both the Underground and LAYC Dances has been steady.
