

Proclamation

of the Mayor of the City of Los Altos, California

WHEREAS, Vicki Reeder has dedicated her creativity, wit, and passion for bringing people together to effect positive changes on the community of Los Altos;

WHEREAS, Vikki Reeder has and continues to lead, guide, and participate in impactful local and national community organizations – including the Los Altos Stage Company, the American Association of University Women, the Los Altos Women’s Caucus, the Los Altos Community Coalition, the Los Altos Mountain View Community Foundation, and the Mentor Tutor Connection;

WHEREAS, the Los Altos Town Crier aptly declared that “Vicki Reeder is a force of nature when it comes to local theater;” and Ann Wolff, a mentor program manager at Los Altos High School said “Vicki is creative to the core – whether writing lyrics for the Follies, performing on stage, decorating pumpkins with her mentee or baking with her students – her artistry shines through;”

WHEREAS, in addition to her involvement with community organizations, Vicki Reeder produced the logo, cover design, and line drawings for a resource guide for teachers covering ecosystems from the San Francisco Bay to the Pacific Ocean;

WHEREAS, the Los Altos community is privileged to enjoy the annual Follies production in which Vicki Reeder leads a dedicated team writing, producing, and singing a delightfully irreverent reflection on local and national current events;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that I, Jonathan D. Weinberg, Mayor of the City of Los Altos, and on behalf of the entire Los Altos City Council, do hereby recognize Vicki Reeder for her longtime community service, and congratulate her on being named 2023 Los Altos of the Year by the Los Altos Town Crier.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of the City of Los Altos this 26th day of March, 2024.

Jonathan D. Weinberg, MAYOR
