Preparedness Grants Program

Attention Los Altos Business Owners

Do you wonder if your business is prepared for a disaster. Do your employees know what to do?

The City of Los Altos has grants to help you make your idea a reality!

Business Owners are invited to apply for a Community & Emergency Preparedness Grant to fund a project for your small business to improve emergency preparedness, strengthen crime prevention and build connections in the community. The application deadline is 4:30pm on February 26th.

PROJECT IDEAS

Funded projects might include:

- Purchasing emergency preparedness supplies for employees
- Hosting a short emergency preparedness training with neighboring small businesses.
- Buying first aid kits for your business
- Your great idea!
