Preparedness Grants Program

Attention Los Altos Residents

Do you want to strengthen your neighborhood's sense of community?
Have an idea for improving neighborhood connections and resiliency?

The City of Los Altos has grants to help you make your idea a reality!

Community members are invited to apply for a Community & Emergency Preparedness Grant to fund a project in your neighborhood to improve emergency preparedness, strengthen crime prevention and build community connections.

PROJECT IDEAS

Funded projects might include:

- Purchasing emergency preparedness supplies or radios for your neighborhood
- Organizing a neighborhood event to build connections between neighbors (e.g., soup night, progressive dinner, coffee on the porch)
- Hosting a training workshop or talk in your neighborhood (e.g. crime prevention, wildfire safety)
- Your great idea!
