Halloween Movie Night at Grant Park

The Los Altos Parks & Recreation Commission ran the first ever Twos 3 Nights Before Halloween Movie Night. This event took place on Saturday, October 28, 2017 at Grant Park, 1575 Holt Avenue. The following movies were shown:

- 6:30 p.m. – Pooh’s Heffalump Movie (Perfect for all ages)
- 8:00 p.m. – Halloweentown (8 and up)

The event went well with about 100 in attendance for the first movie and 40 for the second movie.

Los Altos Public Arts Commission Event

The Los Altos Public Arts Commission is pleased to announce a City sponsored event on November 16th at 7pm in the Main Los Altos Library entitled Building Beautiful Places that Matter. Danny Harris from the Knight Foundation will talk about ways to embrace and accelerate our pending Public Arts Master Plan and explore best practices from around the country and the potential impact of the new plan on the City's future.

Grant Community Center Renovations

The Grant Community Center renovations are complete. The activity rooms have new flooring, counters and paint. The restrooms have been upgraded to ADA specifications.
