Since 1987, art has been displayed publicly throughout Los Altos.

The pieces are primarily sculpture and are chosen for visual appeal, artistic skill and adherence with environmental and safety standards.

The Public Arts Commission selects and places public art and tries to engage the community in support, appreciation and promotion of public art. Los Altos is currently displaying 29 pieces of outdoor sculpture, 20 of which are owned by the city and 9 of which are on loan from the artist.
